"You're Such a Help"

"You always know where to get things done or where to get any article. How do you always know about these wonderful special values? You are a regular bureau of information. How do you manage to find out so much about things?" "Easy enough. Every day, as soon as I get my copy of The Standard, I turn at once to read the classified ads,—the market-place of the Munnimakers. Every day a lot of the readers of The Standard advertise new and interesting offers. There is no better way to keep in touch with business developments and with all enterprise that is going, than to read the Munnimaker ads in The Standard just as quick and just as closely as you read the news that is printed on the front page."

Dear Mr. Munnimaker:

Care The Standard Classified Columns.

Through a little Munnimaker Classified Ad in The Standard, I got a new position,—and a better one, immediately.

Yours truly,

BOOKKEEPER.

Write Mr. Munnimaker, care of The Standard, or phone him, No. 56, whenever you want anything.
